Tuesday prayers and Bible study

This Tuesday, 30th October, Bible study is on the theme of “RECEIVING THE HOLY SPIRIT” – Acts 10:44-48 AND 11:1-15. All are welcome; 7.30pm at the Rectory.

Daytime Bible Study

We will have some daytime Bible study for those that would prefer not to come out in the evening. It will be held at the home of Gladys Doane, with (DIY) tea and biscuits! 1.45 to 3.15 as from November 5th. Let Gladys know if you are interested.

Friday morning prayer

From now on, Chris will be offering Morning Prayer on Fridays at 9.15am for half an hour. Initially in the church, after the move this will take place either in the Rectory or at AFC Totton – venue to be confirmed.

If you can't make Friday mornings, Morning Prayer takes place at St Mary's at 8.30am on Tuesdays; or Mondays at 9.00am at St Matthew's (this is a Book of Common Prayer service)

All Souls service

Friday November 2nd in St Win's at 7.00pm; a lovely, quiet reflective service. There's a sheet on the font for people to write down names they would like to have read out.

More about the move to AFC Totton

Sunday 4th November: celebrating the past/launching into the future. Archdeacon Peter Rouch will be speaking next Sunday at the last service here for a while. A birthday cake afterwards to celebrate the 80th birthday since St Wins building was opened in 1938.

Julie Martin is intending to put slides on the screen of people's memories of St Win's – if you have photos from the past, please talk to her or email them to her at jmartinstwins@btinternet.com

We'd also like to hear one sentence from people about their impressions/memories of St Win's. Again, please speak to or email Julie Martin.

After the celebration service we'll walk (or drive if you can't make the walk) up to AFC Totton. As this is our normal Friendship Lunch day, Joyce is proposing we have lunch at AFC Totton. Please talk to her if you'd like to join in.

Services in November – Sunday 11th is the big Remembrance service at the War Memorial. Do join in with this from 10.30 onwards; there will be no service at AFC Totton so that we can all attend this special Armistice Sunday service at the War Memorial. Sunday 18th is an all hands on deck set up dress rehearsal. The call is out for as many as possible to be involved in setting up and running services in the future. Come and see our new home and pray! Sunday 25th sees Totton Community setting up for the local craft fayre at AFC Totton. A great opportunity to engage with the new community setting we will be in and maybe hand out some leaflets there and in local streets to announce the big launch on December 2nd to mark Advent.

We intend to have a big, welcoming, “official opening” service at AFC Totton on Advent Sunday, 2nd December.

Sign-up sheet for transport to AFC Totton

We need to know how many would value some transport from our present building to our new one. It would mean being at St Wins at 10.15. Please indicate whether you need transport and if you can offer some. St Mary's people can offer lifts there also but that would mean being at the church at 9.10! Please indicate if you would like this.

Another exciting venture at AFC Totton will be a carol service in the stadium on Sunday 23rd December at 5.00pm. Put the date in your diary now; more details later.

Advent Quiet Day

Tuesday 4th December at the Rectory, led by Graham Norman. Time to be decided.
