Last Sunday: Vision Day with Phil Dykes

Thanks to everyone who took part in the vision day we held with Revd Phil Dykes from the Diocesan School of Mission. We were blessed in our worship and in the discussions before and after lunch. From the many thoughts and ideas that came out of the discussion, Phil identified the following points for us to concentrate on in the coming weeks:

1. Support AFC Totton activities
2. Develop individuals in their calling
3. Set up a Christians Against Poverty group (probably in partnership with our fellow Totton churches)
4. Develop people in their relationship with God, using prayer, study and worship

Phil promises to return in a few months' time to help us to evaluate our actions and identify the next steps.

Going Deeper: Pilgrim Course

We are running a Pilgrim Course which will be our standard nurture course from now on available to Cell Groups and as a follow-on for Alpha as a way to go deeper with God. We meet on Tuesdays at 7.30pm at the Rectory. Please let Chris (023 81843308) or Graeme (023 80814722) know if you would like to come.

Intercession workshop

Would you like to join our team that lead our prayers of intercession on a Sunday morning? Chris, John and Graeme will be leading a Refresher evening for Intercessors on Monday February 4, 7.30-8.30pm at St Anne's. This evening is offered for all those in the Team who currently lead intercessions, and for those exploring this ministry.

Chris' new book

Chris' New Book, "The Identification Principle" is out now, published by IVP at £12.99. It is about how the incarnation of Jesus shapes faith and ministry and it also refers to St Wins. The book discusses how incarnational means God connecting with messy human experience and the church being instrumental in transforming society. It offers a fresh approach to how the death of Christ saves us. Chris says he felt that this book more than most was given to him. Gordon Tuck from Testwood Baptist Church said after reading the pre-published version that it was prophetic. There will be a book launch at Testwood Baptist Church on Thursday 7th February at 7.00pm. Refreshments will be provided

Daytime Bible Study

Daytime Bible study takes place at the home of Gladys Doane, 41 Hammonds Way. With (DIY) tea and biscuits! 1.45 to 3.15 every Monday, we'll resume after our Christmas break this Monday, 4th February. Let Gladys (023 8086 0669) or Chris (023 8184 3308) know if you are interested.

Soul Spaces: quiet time

We're holding another quiet time on Tuesday 19 February, 10.00am to 12.00 at St Anne's Church. Led by Graham Norman and Doris Prügel-Bennet, Poé-Sié is a meditation using poetry and music. Graham and Doris say: "We believe that music, silence and poetry are expressions of the Holy Spirit. For every listener there is creation through sound and silence. We bring you words, notes, silences. You bring your mind and soul. Something happens."

The theme of the poetry this time is Genesis: in the beginning: poetry, silence, music. The rest is up to you and God.

All welcome, talk to Lesley if you want more information, or just turn up.

India trip

Chris is away for two weeks in India from 24th February to 9th March. In his second week, he is visiting Pastor Jay in the south, who came amongst us with stirring tales of mission work amongst tribal peoples that parallels the book of Acts. In his preaching tour, Chris is being asked to take a Pastors' conference on the dangers of the prosperity gospel message that is troubling the new churches there. Pastor Jay thinks the book can help address this but says it will cost some £2800 to bring 100 pastors together for the day. Donations and support most welcome if you feel you could.
