Today: Vision Day with Phil Dykes

Revd Phil Dykes from the Diocesan School of Mission will be joining us this morning. He'll be preaching at our 11am service, after which we'll eat lunch together here at AFC Totton at a subsidised price. We'll have a chance to talk together about our joint vision for the way forward for St Winfrid's.

Going Deeper: Pilgrim Course

We are running a Pilgrim Course which will be our standard nurture course from now on available to Cell Groups and as a follow-on for Alpha as a way to go deeper with God. The course commences on Tuesday January 29th, 7.30 pm at the Rectory for those who have either been through Alpha or are not part of an existing Cell Group. The course consists of a number of sections for which each booklet costs £5. Please let Chris (023 81843308) or Graeme (023 80814722) know if you would like to come.

Intercession workshop

Would you like to join our team that lead our prayers of intercession on a Sunday morning? Chris, John and Graeme will be leading a Refresher evening for Intercessors on Monday February 4, 7.30-8.30pm at St Anne's. This evening is offered for all those in the Team who currently lead intercessions, and for those exploring this ministry.

Messy Church: Messy Battle

Our next Messy Church is at St Win's on Saturday 2 February, 2.00-5.00pm. The theme is "Messy Battle" – all are welcome for games, fun, crafts, singing, and story and FOOD. Children please bring and adult or two with you.

Chris' new book

Chris' New Book, "The Identification Principle" is out now, published by IVP at £12.99. It is about how the incarnation of Jesus shapes faith and ministry and it also refers to St Wins. The book discusses how incarnational means God connecting with messy human experience and the church being instrumental in transforming society. It offers a fresh approach to how the death of Christ saves us. Chris says he felt that this book more than most was given to him. Gordon Tuck from Testwood Baptist Church said after reading the pre-published version that it was prophetic.

You now have a chance to buy a copy, discuss it with the author himself, as well as getting a signed first edition.

There will be a book launch at Testwood Baptist Church on Thursday 7th February at 7.00pm. Refreshments will be provided

Daytime Bible Study

Daytime Bible study takes place at the home of Gladys Doane, 41 Hammonds Way. With (DIY) tea and biscuits! 1.45 to 3.15 every Monday, we'll resume after our Christmas break on Monday 4th

February. Let Gladys (023 8086 0669) or Chris (023 8184 3308) know if you are interested.

Soul Spaces: quiet time

We're holding another quiet time on Tuesday 19 February, 10.00am to 12.00 at St Anne's Church. Led by Graham Norman and Doris Prügel-Bennet, Poé-Sié is a meditation using poetry and music. Graham and Doris say: "We believe that music, silence and poetry are expressions of the Holy Spirit. For every listener there is creation through sound and silence. We bring you words, notes, silences. You bring your mind and soul. Something happens.

All welcome, talk to Lesley if you want more information, or just turn up.

India trip

Chris is away for two weeks in India from 24th February to 9th March. In his second week, he is visiting Pastor Jay in the south, who came amongst us with stirring tales of mission work amongst tribal peoples that parallels the book of Acts. In his preaching tour, Chris is being asked to take a Pastors' conference on the dangers of the prosperity gospel message that is troubling the new churches there. Pastor Jay thinks the book can help address this but says it will cost some £2800 to bring 100 pastors together for the day. Donations and support most welcome if you feel you could.
