Deanery Lent Appeal

We recently received the following appeal from Antoine, the Principal of Kigali Theological College and University:

"The Rwanda Parliament now requires ALL Christian Ministers to have a University Education, a bachelor's degree and a valid certificate in religious studies. This means further training which can be ill afforded."

On our visit to Rwanda in 2016 we found that many pastors carrying out valuable work in remote communities have little or no cash income – so little hope of finding the means to travel to Kigali and to enter a long period of study and training. The Deanery Rwanda Mission team have decided to use the 2019 Lent Appeal to offer vital help.

The Deanery has good links with the University; please help to provide BURSARIES for Pastors to continue in Ministry.

Lottie Tots Street

Ickle Village stopped at the end of February. Laura has handed over the business to her assistant Jade who will operate it in a slightly different way. Jade will bring some new ideas and deserves every chance to succeed.

Signifying this change, the new operation is being called 'Lottie Tots Street'. Look it up (www.lottietotsstreet.co.uk). The strapline is 'Imagine, play and explore'. Jade is open to building stronger links with the church so it looks like a good outcome for now at least.
